This was sanctioned, and Mr. B. Krishna Samy Chetty was appointed probationer on a pay of Rs 75- for the first two years, and Rs 100 Thereafter

Head Assistant is invited to P & S file 55-231 Part 2 about the appointment of a press probationer. The matter proceed on which the post was sanctioned seems to be that the chief foreman was approaching superannuation and had to be replaced by a trained man. This situation has disappeared now. None of the Superior Staff are likely to retire shortly. The Supdt has advanced a number of arguments in favour this proposal. But neither case is in view a permanent appointment for which the probationer can be eventually absorbed. The appointment of a probationer would appears to have no justification

General Secretary to the Government of Mysore, BANGALORE.

SIR,

With reference to G. O. No. G. 2795-6/ P&S. 9-27-2, dated 8th September 1927, sanctioning the appointment of Mr. B. Krishnaswami Chetty, B. E., Probationer, as Chief Foreman of the Government Press, I have the honour to request that sanction may be kindly accorded for the appointment of another Probationer for training in the Press for a period of three years and in doing so, I beg to submit the following facts for the gracious consideration of Government.

The Branch Press at Mysore is now without any trained subordinate to the Assistant Superintendent who is managing single-handed the work that is of late growing not only in volume but also in variety and quality. At present, there is only a Foreman in the Branch Press drawing Rs. 40/- who is next to the Assistant Superintendent and who has to be entrusted with the responsibility of managing the Press in cases of emergency or when the Assistant Superintendent goes on long leave, the only officer available in Bangalore has to be sent to Mysore to the detriment of work at Bangalore. As the Branch Press is growing in importance day by day, not only does it require much extension of space but also additional responsible assistance. It will not do to keep the Press any longer devoid of a well-trained, fairly decently paid and educated assistant to whom the Assistant Superintendent could look up to for efficient and reliable service and in whom he can place implicit confidence for the management of work in the Press. As it is, he has to depend on ill-paid and uneducated men which is not always safe, especially when dealing with confidential and other works received from the Palace and the University.

I therefore feel that it is absolutely necessary to train up an educated man, a B. A., B. Sc., or B. E., for the Branch Press at Mysore.

There is a provision of Rs. 75/- made in the current year's budget for the pay of a probationer and money is therefore available to meet the expenditure.

I therefore beg to propose that I may be permitted to advertise in the Mysore Gazette the post of a Probationer through the Central Recruitment Board on a starting salary of Rs. 50/- in the first year, Rs. 60/- in the second year and Rs. 75/- in the third year. The training will be given for two years in the Central Press, Bangalore and thereafter at the Branch Press, Mysore. The selected candidate will be required to pass the Government Examinations in Printing and Book-binding.

I beg that my proposal may be kindly sanctioned at a very early date.

I have the honour to be,
S i r,
Your most obedient servant,

B. Venkatarangaiya

Superintendent,
